INTERMEZZO.

CHAS. L. JOHNSON.

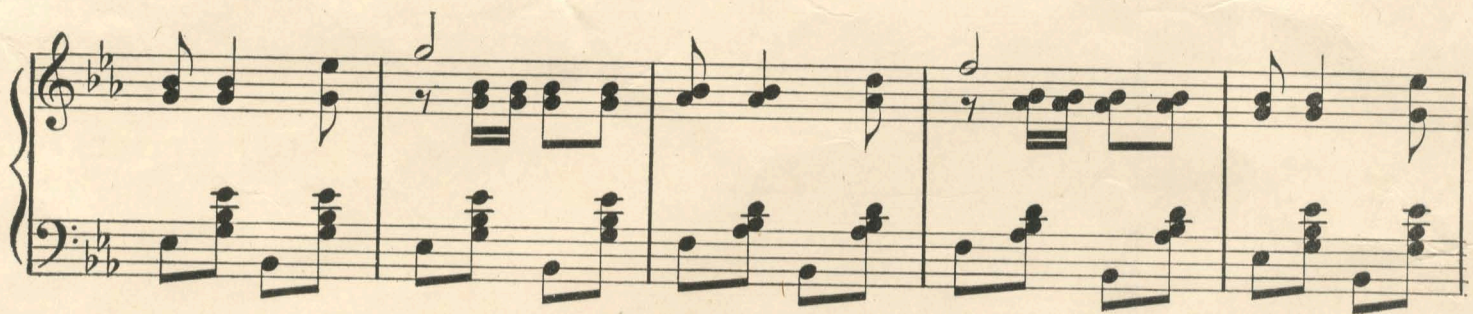

The musical score is written for piano in 2/4 time, key of B-flat major. It consists of five systems of music. The first system begins with a forte (f) dynamic, followed by a fortissimo (ff) section. The second system starts with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The third, fourth, and fifth systems continue the piece with various musical notations including slurs, ties, and repeat signs. The fifth system includes first and second endings.

This page contains six systems of musical notation for a piano piece. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The notation includes various musical elements such as dynamics, articulation, and repeat signs.

- System 1: Starts with a forte (f) dynamic. The right hand features chords and eighth-note patterns, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment.
- System 2: Continues the melodic and harmonic development. A crescendo hairpin is visible, leading to a fortissimo (ff) dynamic in the final measure.
- System 3: Includes a first ending (marked "1.") and a second ending (marked "2."). The first ending leads back to an earlier section, while the second ending concludes the phrase.
- System 4: Features more complex rhythmic patterns in the right hand, including sixteenth-note runs, over the sustained chords in the left hand.
- System 5: Continues the intricate right-hand patterns and the supporting left-hand accompaniment.
- System 6: The final system on the page, ending with a double bar line. It features a melodic flourish in the right hand over a final chordal accompaniment in the left hand.
